2. LEAGUE RULES

The CBBL shall be governed by the Official Rules of Major League Baseball and Bronco Rule book and shall be superseded by specific rules within our own league as described herein. (Bronco Rule Book Click Here)

- A. There is drop third strike Now we play Bronco Rules.
- B. Infield Fly rule does apply
- C. No "Slash Bunt" Rule For safety reasons, a batter is out for illegal action when he/she fakes a bunt and then takes a full swing. This would eliminate a A-Ball player from fake bunting and "slap-hitting" the ball.

3. SCHEDULES

- A. The league shall begin competition whenever each division or a majority thereof decides.
- B. Every effort should be made by each division to play as many of their scheduled games as possible, prior to the League Tournament, to decide the Division Championship.
- C. A minimum of twelve(12) games required to decide a division champ.

4. PLAYER ELIGIBILITY

- A. A player's eligibility is based on the ages eleven(11) and twelve(12) years old, whose birth date occurs prior to May 1st. Younger players may participate at a coaches and/or parents discretion or to complete a team's roster if necessary.
- B. Boundary lines determining a players team shall be based on high school district or park district providing the player resides at a permanent address within that area.
- C. Players living within a town's districts or school's area that DOES NOT have a team may participate in an adjacent town's program provided-
 - I) The player(s) have been approved by the three(3) league officers
 - II) And also by a majority of the coaches within the division.
 - III) Once the players play for the adjacent town they can continue to play for that town.
- D. No player may be rostered on more than one (1) traveling team and be eligible to participate in the CBBL- with the exception of playing on a little league and farm league team within the same program.

- E. Any team guilty of a roster violation(s) will be subject to forfeiting all games in question.

5. ROSTERS

- A. Roster sheets must be completed in full and given to the Division Director no later than May 1st. (Rosters for 2022 must be emailed to League office to Be Posted ONLINE for every teams viewing)
- B. Rosters shall be limited to a maximum of twenty(20) players.

- D. Any and all roster changes must be submitted in writing to the Division Director at least one(1)week prior to a player's participation in order to be eligible for play.

6. LINEUPS AND PLAY

- A. A team must field a starting line up of no less than eight(8) players in order to start the game.
- B. A game may continue with eight(8) players with an OUT being recorded whenever the open spot in the batting order comes up. A game started with eight(8) players and has no substitutes and a player is ejected during the game, the game shall end and the offending team will forfeit the game.
- C. Each player on a team's roster DOES NOT HAVE TO PLAY defense for a minimum number of outs. EVERY EFFORT SHOULD BE MADE to play every player however. Players that arrive late, will be inserting into the batting order in the last position.
- D. Each team shall have a continuous batting order consisting of no more than fifteen(15) batters.
I) Teams will have free substitution of the fifteen(15) batters for defense only. Batting order must remain the same order. Players who show up late are placed last in the batting order, and can bat when their turn arrives.
II) Teams with more than fifteen(15) players can enter the remaining players by the re-entry rule.
III) Teams have the option to bat their fifteen(15) players or bat as many players as the opposing team has in their line-up, and substitute the rest of the players into the line-up.
IV) If a player is injured during the game and can not continue to play and there is no substitute, an out will not be recorded in that players spot.
V) If a player is ejected and there are no substitutes, an out will be recorded
- E. Teams have the option to bat their (15) players or bat as many players as the opposing team has in their line-up & substitute the rest of the players into the line-up (see substitution rule)
a) Any players dressed at the game and not in the batting line-up must be substituted into the line-up for at least (2) innings of defense.(Only if they are not in the batting order)
- F. Re-Entry:
I) Any starting players may withdraw and re-enter once, provided such player occupies the same batting position whenever he is in the line-up. A substitute who is withdrawn may not re-enter.
II) All re-entry must be reported to the umpire and/or scorekeeper at time of re-entry.
III) IMPROPER RE-ENTRY: an act of an improper re-entry is handled as a protest by the offending team. Improper re-entry is a violation after a pitch is made. Examples of improper re-entry are:
a) Starter who re-enters in an incorrect batting position.
b) Starter who re-enters a second time.
c) A substitute who re-enters the game after his removal of the game.
Effect Sec.6E III
1) If an improper re-entry is discovered by the defense while the player is playing offensively, the following penalties will be enforced:
A) If the improper re-entry is discovered while he is at bat, player is ejected and a proper substitute assumes any accumulated balls and strikes.

- B) If the improper re-entry is discovered after he has completed his turn at bat but before a pitch has been made to a succeeding batter he is called out and the player is ejected from the game. All base runners, if they had advanced, must return to the base occupied at the time the improper re-entry took a position in the batter's box.
 - C) If improper re-entry is not discovered until a pitch is made to the next batter or the improper re-entry enters as a substitute runner, player is ejected. All play that occurred while the improper re-entry was in the game will stand.
- 2) If an improper re-entry is discovered by the offense while the player is playing defensively, the following penalties will be enforced:
- A) If the improper re-entry is discovered after he makes a play on a fair batted ball (catch or throw) or a play on a foul fly ball before the next pitch, revert back to the previous pitch, the batter and each base runner are advanced one base. The improper player is ejected.
 - B) If the improper re-entry is discovered after a pitch which did not result in a batted ball on which the improper player made a play, the improper player is ejected (This includes the pitcher)
- F. A game will consist of six(6) innings for a complete game unless rule "H" or "G" apply.
- G. If in the event a game is called because of rain before six(6) innings are complete, a five(5) inning game will be a complete game, or 4 1/2 innings if the home team is winning. Any game rain out before a fifth (5th) inning is complete the game will be replayed from the beginning. If a game is called because of darkness before five(5) innings, the game will be suspended and resumed from that point to complete a full six(6) innings.
- H. A team which is ahead by ten(10) or more runs after four(4) innings of play, or the home team is leading by ten(10) or more runs after three and one half (3 1/2) innings, shall be the winner.
- I. If a team is up by 15 runs, that team could no longer steal any bases, until the score falls to less than 15 runs, then they could steal again until the score reaches up by 15 again. (New 2019)
